Biography

Marcel Nieuwenhuis (born 1951) studied at a business school in the Netherlands, later acquiring a law degree from the University of Utrecht. He has been working for Kluwer since 1974, at first in the Marketing and Promotion Department of the Dutch Law Division, then as International Manager for the Sales and Marketing Departments.

In 1983 he was one of the founding fathers of Law Books in Europe (LBE), a network of law publishers in Europe.

After the merging of Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, Graham & Trotman and Kluwer Law & Taxation in 1995 Marcel Nieuwenhuis became Director of the London office of the new company Kluwer Law International, later – back in the Netherlands – Director of International Trade Sales. He is now Senior Sales Manager and responsible for all Kluwer business in the German speaking countries.

Marcel Nieuwenhuis is married and has 2 daughters.
